

Dear Sirs ; Let XM Radio compete fairly with the rest of Corporate America, by letting them run news and weather on their channels. I am more than willing to pay for this service each month. Because regular Fm/Am radio channels SUCK with all the commercials they have on their stations.